

David Bell Mislan
4400 Massachusetts Avenue, NW
Washington, DC
+1 (202) 885-6134
mislan@american.edu

EDUCATION

| | |
|--|----------------|
| Ph.D. in Political Science Rutgers University | September 2008 |
| M.A. in Government Johns Hopkins University | August 2001 |
| B.A. in History Rutgers University | May 1999 |

ACADEMIC POSITIONS

| | |
|---|----------------|
| Assistant Professor of International Studies American University – SIS | 2011 - present |
| Assistant Professor of Political Science Rosemont College | 2009 - 2011 |
| Acting Director Rutgers Center for Global Security and Democracy | 2008 - 2009 |

VISITING APPOINTMENTS

| | |
|--|-------------|
| Fulbright Scholar Yokohama National University | 2016 - 2017 |
| Visiting Instructor Zagreb School of Economics and Management | 2007 |

TEACHING AND RESEARCH INTERESTS

U.S. Foreign Policy-Making
U.S. National Security
Intelligence and Threat Assessment
U.S. Foreign Policy towards East Asia and Japan
Qualitative Methods

SELECTED PUBLICATIONS

Books

Weird IR: Deviant Cases in International Relations with Philip A. Streich (New York: Palgrave-Macmillan, 2018)

Enemies of the American Way: Identity and Presidential Foreign Policymaking (New York: Bloomsbury), 2012

Cross-Cultural Communication (San Diego, CA: Bridgepoint Education), 2012

Entries in Edited Volumes

“Congress, U.S.,” “Foreign Relations Committee, House,” “Foreign Relations Committee, Senate,” and “War Powers Act,” in G. Kurt Piehler, ed., Encyclopedia of Military Science (Thousand Oaks, CA: Sage), 2013

Articles

“Uncharted Waters,” Cairo Review of Global Affairs 24 (Winter 2017),

“Enemies of the American Way” Presidents & Executive Politics Report 37:1 (Fall 2014), 25-26.

“What Follows the Storm? Research on the Effect of Disasters on Conflict,” Global Change, Peace, and Security 26, no. 1 (2014) with Philip A. Streich

In Progress

“Deviant Cases and Creativity in IR Research” with Philip A. Streich

“The 9/10 Effect: Risk, Reference Points, and the Iraq Crisis” (under review)

“Smart Power and Dumb Power in the Trump Era”

“The Pivot to Asia: A Cultural-Cognitive Explanation”

AWARDS

| | |
|-------------------------------------|-------------|
| Fulbright Scholar | 2016 - 2017 |
| AU Summer Scholar | 2016 |
| Maggio Foundation Development Award | 2010 |
| Enk Graduate Fellow | 2002 - 2004 |

LANGUAGES

Spanish (intermediate), Japanese (NLPT-5)